

PTO Meeting

March 4, 2019

6:00 PM

1. Art department and Social studies department presentations.

2. Treasurer's Report

Financial's look good. Carolyn looking into PTO insurance. We need a full liability policy at $288 per year. Carolyn to look into this company and will let us all know when she purchases the policy.

3. Upcoming Events

- Pie Day, tomorrow, March 5.
- Help with School Board Elections - Ballots by March 19 - have done stuffing by March 22. April 8 is when we count the ballots. Check for stuffing on the Wednesday at 2:30 PM in the office. Kim Jensen may want to help.

4. May 6th is the PTO election. Nominations due on April 5. I will send something to Christine to include in the announcements. Include each officer position in the announcement. Send the nominations to Rachel Ballard. All positions are open.

5. Send out another link to spirit wear.

6. Other

Grounds clean-up - A sign-up genius is needed for a clean-up in the future. We need more adults to help. We had too many kids and not enough adult supervision. Limit the number of kids too that are helping. Mr. G. wants the front of Bldg B and the MSA school sign done before graduation. We can just send out a request for a Graduation Grounds Clean-up. We have $200 left for pizza for the people who help. We also will use the money for the mulch and plants for the planter out front. May 30 at 4:15. Ask Christine to change it to Graduation Beautification.

Staff Appreciation - The May 5th week. Lunch of Jimmy Johns on Wednesday, May 8. This will be provided during the all-staff meeting. Lunch to start at 11am. Chips, fruit and dessert too.
